NWER.

The "Holly Springs Banner" is published serv week at Four Dollans, which must be paid ein advance, in every case. No subscription ill be received for less than six months; nor will discontinuance be made until all arrearage

EDITED BY GEORGE A. WILSON.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be inserted at one dollar sauare, (ten lines or less) for the first time advertisements not marked with the numinsertions on the margins, will be inserted

Answuncing candidates for office $10 each, in Lerress addressed to the editor or publisher business must be post paid in order to secure

Cash will be required for all Job Work done at office as soon as delivered. cations, will be (if inserted) charged as an sertisement double price. And must, in all be paid for in advance.

PRINTING OFFICE OFTHE

aving just received an additional repared to execute in the neatest manner ad at the shortest notice, all kinds of

JOB and Letter Bress PRINTING.

BALL TICKETS, AMPHLETS, BILLS OF LADING, CIRCULARS, WAY BILLS.

HAND BILLS, FUNERAL TICKET LABELS &c. and Blanks of every description. Helly Springs, Mi. March 16, 1839.

Northern Bank of Miss. Holly Springs, Nov. 29th 1839. A call of ten dollars on each share of the capital stock of this institution is required whe paid on or before the 1st day of February next at the Banking House in Holly

By or of the Board. W. GOODMAN. Cash'r. No. 39-60-d. Nov. 30th 1839.

Statice to delinquent Stockholders. NORTHERN BANK OF MISS. Holly Springs, Nov. 29. AT a called meeting of the Board of Diextors held this day at the Banking House,

Resolved, That the stock of all stockholters that have neglected to pay the second intalment on their stock due on the 10th line last, will be sold at pub ic auction at the Banking House in Holly Springs on the first Monday in January next in accordance with the 5th section of the Charter, unless such delinquents prior to that day make the required payment together with interest from Atrue copy of the records. W. GOODMAN. No. 39-4t. Nov. 29th 1839.

10th June last.

10 BOXES best James River Tobac-BRUNSON, CHEATHAM & Co.

| OSNABURGS. TEN THOUSAND yards Richmond

BRUNSON, CHEATHAM & Co. MOTICE

Chulahoma, Marshall co.

5th instant, a dark brown horse, about 14 hands high, with a blaze in his face, the back part of his wither has just got cured up from a hurt, be his shoes on his fore feet, his hind hoofs 'W trea good deal broken any person taking up so many monsters now-a-days, that mere trihankfully rewarded for their trouble; any Information will be thankfully received. In-WM. L. LEE.

July 6-15-tf CLANVILLE BEWIS: ATTORNEY AT gular rs, so

ttle, F

LPH.

f Cr

FT.

RESIDES AT HOLLY SPRINGS, MARSHALL COUNTY, MI. March 16-9-tf

DAVID A. CRENSHAW,

councellor and attorney at Law, W ILL attend to any professional business in North Mississippi. Office in Panola, Miss. Sept. 21, 1839.—12m

OBN H. ANDERSON. | WILLIAM FINLEY. andreson o binitely. Attorneys at Law.

HAVING associated themselves in the practice of the Law—will attend promptly to all collections, as well as to other professional busiconfided to them in the counties of Marshall, he Pederal Court at Pontotoc.—Office at Holly Rolly Springs, Jan. 18, 1839.—1-tf

THE SUE-MARINE ARMOR CO. OR PUMP-PUMP-PUMP. By the author of the "Old Clock-Here she goes

 There she goes. No one who passes through Sup town, goes by the residence of old Mr -, without looking up at the parlor windows, for at one of them the old rich, gouty fellow us tally sits, for hours, the observed of all observers.' There are many, too, among the dashing young men of the city who look up at those windows in hopes. not to see him, but to see another-a charming girl, named Charlotte-his ward! Charlotte is a perfectly facinating creature-elegant in her manners, and, what is more levely, mentally accomplished. Her money, in some men's eyes, however, has glistend more than her other charms. The old gentleman, however, knows a thing or All Communications involving personal two, and though rather hard of hearing and not very nimble, even when nimbleness would be a virtue, yet he has gain d the reputation of being as good a guardian as any that ever figured in a novel or play.-Rich as Cræsus himself, he takes good care that his ward be not unshorn of her treasures, so long as he has an eye to watch, a tongue to caution, or a foot to kick a fellow into the street. If there be any thing that supply of Fancy and Job Type, we are Mr G------ however, particularly prides himself upon where he should least do so, it is upon his knowledge of stocks-and many a call does he have from the getters up of 'fancies,' in the hope that he may become a purchaser. We are afraid to say more, lest we should draw a portrait, where an outline sketch is only intended - nd so enough. Thus much we might have said just one week ago as a few knowing ones about town can declare; but exactly thus we ought no to say to-day. The why will be seen in the

Betty is the duenna of Mr G----'s and a female after the heart of the old man -a confidant, a house-keeper of the rarest qualities-in her character precise and rigid. On Monday morning last, she opened the d or to as nice a litte man as ever crossed its threshold-young, blooming and hand ome -e very pattern of a lover. His name C. Gerald. He had seen Charlotte from a window in a neighboring house—he had looked love with his eyes till they had watered -and so had Charlotte done the same, by which communications the fond lover had discovered that there was nothing to be gained except by a desperate act, for on his proposing to write a billet-doux, the reply was that he would have to bring it himself, and that then all might be di covered. Charles anticipated as much. So he had determined to push a plot forward on the very morning already named.

He was shown into the parlor, where the old man was seated, and as he entered the folds of a petticoat floated through a closing

'Good morning, Mr G_____, I have the honor to introduce myself to you as Mr Ger-

"Good morning," answered the old man dryly-"take a seat. Your business with "My business-yes sir; my business, yes

'Is what?' piped the old man. 'Yes sir.' 'No sir! Your business?'

Yes sir. 'Well sir.' Well.

Well, I wish to introduce to your notice, Mr G _____, an invention of i mense commercial importance which is now under the cont. ol of a company.2 What is it, sir?

'It is, sir.' 'What, what is it?'

'It is the Sub-Marine Armor.' 'Sub what? It sounds too much like Sub-STOLEN from the stable of the Sub-subscriber, on the night of the Treasury. What, is it an armor of defence against that monster?"

"No, sir. It is more like a monster it-'Well, well,' said the old man "there are of delivering said horse to me, shall be fles, by and by, will be the greatest monsters.' 'The purpose of this invention,' said Edward is to go to the bot om of the sea, and Ermation will be directed to Chulahoma, recover lost property-to visit sunken vessels, &c.

'Ah-ah! I remember it was puffed in the papers long ago,' said the old man. 'Yes, sir, it was noticed, said Edward. 'I your opinion upon it, and perhaps you will cold for me to go out now-I-"Oh, Mr G-," interrupted Edward it can be brought here if you've no objection.' 'Of course I have not,' said Mr Git. When can I see it? Edward's eye brightened. The consummation of his hopes seemed at hand. "I will bring it up this after noon," he replied; and thus having settled the matter, with a few courteous remarks, he bade the old man good pers"-

It was Monday afternoon. A carriage, with the windows 'curtained, was watched by thousands, as a rolled and street. When it aring to S - street. When it aring red the note, she stole slyly out of the larly excelled in the angry grin. He did his cy st - edged hasband of a negro wife fuil at the larly excelled in the angry grin. The did his cy st - edged hasband of a negro wife fuil at the larly excelled in the angry grin. The did his cy st - edged hasband of a negro wife fuil at the larly excelled in the angry grin. street up to server in the state of them ever lose a lose of the door of Mr G____'s house front door having told Betty that she was go his part so well, that he is a id to he was go his part so well, that he is a id to he was go his part so well, that he is a id to he was go his part so well, that he is a love was go his part was go he is a love was go his part was go he is a love was go his part was go he is a love was go his part was go he is a love was go he is a love was go had been done when the love was go had been done was go he is a love was go he is a love was go had been done was g the driver reined in his ill-matched horses, ling to her own room, and then deposited her- half a dozen women miscarry; but the jrs- trunk cover, (which the lady had strung vote on a count of the e things?

and Charles Gerald quickly came forth from self in the carriage, which was only observe tice being apprized by one who stood near round her hips in the hurry of starting, it, and ascending the steps of Mr G- 's red by the lover at the window. house, pulled at the bell. Betty opened the his all right' whispered Charles through was a Jacobite, and being unwilling that a first whispered Charles through was a Jacobite, and being unwilling that a door. It was all right. Charles rushed to the pipe. Prepare to depart?

"Breathe if you can, for Heaven's sake," air-pump-pump, or I shall die."

as she stood in utter amazement at the scene. clerg man, who made Charles and Char- proved by one of his antagonists, that he had an imp sition as the genms of swindle The Trass-bound, iron-bound, armor-cramp- lotte one that very night, and, that too, in the practised with verjuice for some days before, over devised. We are unterly unable to exlor; 'pump for heaven's sakel' cried the man old man has bought any stock, will be found fair grinner, and therefore ordered him to be aware, if they have bestowed the slight Ilke a steam-engine.

Mr G entered. There stood the man in armor by the side of the centre-table. Who or what he was could not be discerned by his appearance. He was apparently one mass of leather and rivets from head to foot, save that a plate of thick g ass concealed his face so entirely, that nothing but the protuberant nose could be discerned in the light which torced is way through the chrystal mediam.

'What is that?' asked the old man 'That-that-,' said Charles, that is the'

he t p of his voice. ne forced in the atmospheric again. 'Then there's a man in there, is there?'

he invention in a correct manne .' The old man put on his spectacles and the conversation pipe.

The Major staggered scross the room as | griened for by men." - folks dry. But, Mr Gerald, you think it at Coleshill, or how making mouths turn to Charles forced in some more atmospheric, hend. However it be, I am intermed that will be pleased to see it.' He rang the bell and that all the country-fellows within ten lot ee.' She looked with astonishment at the their glasses every morning, in order to thousand miles hence. specimen before her, and vanished. said Mr G ----, "here is a cur.osity for for has raised such an ambit on among the vou. Charlotte, Mr Gerald? The intro- common people of out-grinning one another, d ction, at the same time that it delighted, that many discorning persons are afraid it confused the lovers. Charlotte scarcely able should s oil most of the faces in the county; to restrain herself from laughter, inquired and that a Warwickshire man will be known what the machine before her was. 'Pump,' ejaculated the Maj r.

'A pump is it?' stammered Charlotte. 'O, no!' sad Charles, 'this is the pumpthe air pump,' and he supplied the armor with breath again, this is the-

'Hold your jaw!' bawled Charles, through the conversation pipe, while the old man ook up the thread of narrati n and explained the invention, after a fashion peculiar y of

through the pipe, and he carefully deposited in the mailed hand of the Major a neat bilter, which she quickly concealed in her bo- view, and looking upon the company like finnce of ctiquette, burst out into a rear.

Curiosity alone would prompt me to look at som. That'll do. I'm better now? cried the

> They are always pumping and never dry. grin. They- 'pump!

Charles sprang to the air pump, and have to sying to the carriage door, with the as spair of long lantern-jaws, wrong his free We have no doubt that his statement as ing pumped in a fresh supply of the atmost thate of Charles, his cumbersome per- into such an hideous grimace, therevery has whithe saw during his visit to Col. Johns pheric, the Major breathed once more free son concent I the affrighted Charlotte from force of it appeared under a different distor- is strapulously true, and, if it be so, say y, and amounced himself ready to go at the eyes of the guardan, and the successful tion. The ahole company stood astonished the Choctaw Academy, for which the U trio drove off amid the cries of "pump- a such a complicated grin, and were ready ted States Government pays Col. J. an "Heaven preserve us!" exclaimed Betty, pump-pump-!" to an accommodating to assign the prize to him, had it not been mease such yearly, is as gross and infine ed Major made the best of his way into the presence of the arm relad Major, and as we and had a crab found upon him at the very ceive why it is that members of Cong hall, while Charles gave directions to the dri- know, to the chagrin of Mr. G. and the ut- time of grinning; upon which the best linve been o long and profound y silent ter am zement of Berty. The whole affair judges of grinning declared it as their opin- relation to a vast yearly appropriation for The two sparks were shown into the par- has been unleadly settled, but whether the lon, that he was not to be looked upon as a support of an institution which they must in the armor, and away went the air-pump on pplicatiod at the office of the Sub-Marine set uside as a cheat.

From the Spectator. THE GRINNING MATCH.

an ingenious as her for the erecting of sev- dered at his accomple him ats, and bestowed of the letter. erel handscraft prizes to be contended for by the ring on him unanimously; but what he In the course of the convers tion, as "Pump-pump!" cried the manin armor. our British arti aus, and the influence they esteemed more than all the rest, a country as we could j dge of him [Col. Johnson] might have towards the improvement of our | wench, whom he had woodd in vain for recognized the true soldier, but as to disc several manufactures. I have since that above five years before, was so charmed with oring any thing which could show the sta 'Pump-pampt' screamed the Major, at been very much surprised by the following his grin , and the applicases which he re- man or the officer to for the high place adverti event, which I find in the Post-Boy ceived on all sides that she married him the occupied, we were rather disappointed. Charles explained to the old man, while, of the lith instant, and again repeated in the week following, and to this day wears the We intended to visit in the evening.

"On the 9th of October next will be run | made use of it as his wedding ring. for upon Coleshill-heath in Warwick bire. This paper might perhaps seem very in- too much hurt by the view of many wrete 'Ol yes sir-a porter who is hired to show a place of six grainers value, three hears, by pertinent, if it grew serious in the conclusion. little boys about the establishment, perf. any horse, mare, or rolding, that both ext I would nevertheless leave to the consider ling in and o tside the lowest services, won a eve the value of 51. the winning tion of those who are the patr'ns of this proved to be the Academicians themsel horse to be seld for 101, to carry 10 stone monstrous trial of s ill, whether or no they Their number increased towards dusk, Well, said he, I declare it seems to men weight if 14 bands high; if ab we or order are not guilty, in some measure, of an affront they were to be seen, dirty, half naked, he very important invention. But can the man to carry or be allowed weight for inches, to their species in resting after this manner ing around for a horse to witch, or any move with ea e in the water? Can he see and to be antered Friday the 15th, at the the boman face divine, and turning that such performance to get a picayune, and Swan in Coleshill, before six in the evening. part of us, which has so great an image in- vert it into grog; some of them were publications. 'O yes, walk a little,' said Charles through Also a plate of less value to be run for by pressed upon it, into the image of a monkey; playing at cards to cheat each other of asses. The same day a gold ring to be whether the raising such silly competitions earnings of the day:

well as he could, but almost tumbled down. The first of these diversions that is to such useless accomplishments, filling the This is the education they get in vi tue d "And you think the stock is inclined to" be exhibted by the 10% race horses may prob- common people's heads with such sens less act of Congress, and it rests with their 'Pump-pump!' interrupted the Major, ably have its use; but the two last, in which ambitions, and inspiring them with such ab-spread knowledge among their nation v the asses and men are concerned, seem to surd id as of superiority and pre-eminence, they rem n h m -- poor Indians! unfort 'Pump,' said the old man, well if it pumps me al ogether extraordinary and unaccount- has not in it something immoral as well as people! when will they be well treate, by as badly as some stock, it will pump some able. Why they should keep running as es ridiculous. account in Warwickshire, more than in any 'Pump!' grouned the man in armor. - ether pa ts of England, I cannot compre-"Well, my stars," exclaimed the old man, several asses are now kept in body-c o he, "this is a curious affair. I think Charlotte and sweated every morning upon the heath; could his upon a more laughable instance of maker. Betty appeared. 'Betty,' said he, 'call Char- miles of the Swan, grin an hour or two in qualify themse was fir the 9th of October -In a moment Charlottee entered. "Ah," The prize which is proposed to be grinned by his grin, as Reman Catholics imagine a Kentish man is by his tail. The gold ring 'What, does it speak?' asked the girl. 'Is which is made the prize of deformity, is just the reverse of the golden apple, that was formerly made the prize of beauty, and should carry for its poesy the old motto in-

Or, to accommodate it to the capacity of the

The trightfull'st grinner

painter to be present at this great controversy of faces, in order to make a collection of the

I must not here omit an account which I Mrs K-Milton's Death.

'Grinn'd horribly a ghastly smile-Major. 'I'm glad of it,' said the old man, His muscles were so drawn tog ther on I thought we should have to call the coro- each side of his fire, that he howe twenty was the reply ner, and that would be bad for the newspa- teach at a grin, and put the country in some pain, lest a fo eigner should carry away the pass. honor of the day, but upon a further trial "Yes, they do pump, with a vengeauct!- they found he was master only of the metry distance between them and their followers

The next that mounted the t ble was a Charles let fly the atmospheric yet again male-content in those days, and a good masand Charlotte left the room in haste. Have ter in the whole act of grinoi g, be partieud not a little a new description. O we Kings of Richard M. Johnson has been the act him, that the fellow who grinned in his face in the absence of a better-bask) 'Adisaffected person should win the gold ring, It is unneces sary to add, that they k The old man having expressed a favora- and be looked upon as the best grinner in their room during the remainder of their "Come! get out Major!" said Charles has ble opinion of the invention, requested Mr the country, he ordered the oaths to be ten- journ. Gerald to call upon him on the morrow for dered unto him upon his quitting the talle, "I can't breathe, Charley. Curse me if a decision about the amount of shares that which the grinner relusing he was set as de Col. Jourson's Curceraw School he would take, and assisted the enterprising as an unqualified person. There was sev- The following are extracts of a letter, on Joung in a to depart. He saw them to the eral other grotesque figures that presented 22d of September and p blished in the C floor; but unfackily chance! as the M jor themselves, which it would be too tedious to cannati Evening Post. It evidently is, as "That's what I want to do"-replied the cossed over the toreshold, his foot caught and describe. I must not however out a purports to be, from the pen of a gentlement Major, "but I can't. Pump in some more he was thr wn he dlong down the steps!- ploughman who lived in the first er part of who takes no part in politics, and has The armor protected him, however, and the country, and being very and chy is a feelings funkindness towards Col. Johns.

bler, Giles Gorgon by name, who produced good ei her to the Unite! States or to several new gries of his own invention, hav- Cho taws-an institution which never ing been used to cut faces for many years sub-cryet, and never can subserve, any p together over his last. At the very first grin pose of public of lity or philanthrophyhe cast every human feature out of his coun- institution which, in short, is the laught with those monstrous features, and Ot | tenance, at the second he became the face of stock of all who have ever seen it in ope [pare a spout, at the third a aboon, at the fourth a tion or who know any t ing of its charac That Gorgon's laok, and petrifying stare. P. head of a bass viol, and at the fifth a pair of from the testimony of others. In a late paper I mentioned the project of nut-crackers. The whole assembly won- We omit some of the unimportant porti prize upon her finger, the cobbler having Indian Academy, of which we had he

among the ignorant, proposing prizes for This is but the truth concerning ther

From the Western Humorist.

THE LAST BUSTLE STORY.

Eastern folks may ease the mind by making a 'bustle' but we doubt whether they contre temps, whether in fact or fict on, than one which occurred a short time since, not a

ing bride, who had just arrived from "foreign parts," took up their abode in one of our fashionable hotels, and spent the first day to be expected from a person of so end or two amid the numerous band boxes, hat standing as the he d of that institution c ses, trunks and other apparatus consequent upon travelling. Mrs Kof seeing the town, begged her husband, one morning, to escort her on a stroll of discovery; and, accordingly they is ue | forth, determined to "astonish the natives," by the s l'eadar of their accourrements-in which, as will shortly appear, they were quite suc-

Having satisfied their optics that the 'village' was 'wonderfully c'vilized for a savage country,' they found their way to a pleasant promonade on the envirous, whither the In the meanwhile I would advise a Dutch | haut ton of our city were wont to resort; but, as ill luck ordained it-

Lowering clouds o'ereast the dawn." 'Now for the letter,' whispered Cha les most remarkable grins that shall be there ex and the rain s on pattered down in abundance. No place of shelter being ne r, and -intent on preser ing her silks let-douz. As Charles went on to explain, lately received of one of these grinning- undamaged, cast her eye around, and sweing calling Charl tte's attention more particu- matches from a gentleman, who, up n read- only a few ladies and gen lemen behind, imlarly to the armor, he neglected the air-pump | ing the above mentioned advert sement, en- meditally gathered no ber out side garment and the Major, thinking he might venture tortained a coffee-house with the following and threw it over her bonnet-it being a to be exhausted from his long confinement, narrative. Up a the taking of Namure, common resource at home.' Scarcely had wish you would look at it, sir, and give began to express himself as any thing but at amidst the public rejuicings made on that she walked a dozen steps beside her liego home 'Pump-pump-or' I shall die, - occasion, there was a gold ring given by a lord, when ill suppress d titters assailed her quick-pump-pump-pump -pump - wh gjustice of peace, to be grinned (cr. - cars; but knowing full well that her under Well, young man, I have no objection, "pump" he almost inaudibly exclaimed. The first competitor that entered the lists, dress was white as eriven snow, she and place in a said Mr G—, but the weather is too while he sunk upon the carpet apparently was a black swarthy Frenchman, who accided their mirth to metric houte, and place in a said Mr G—, out now—I—, while he sunk upon the carpet apparently was a black swarthy Frenchman. unable to bear his incarceration longer .- dentally assed that way, and being a man her head a loft, stepped forward with the air Both the old man and Charles flew to the naturally of a withered look, and hard feet of a Golbeyaz. The individuals behind, air pump while Charlotte, in her attempt thres, promised himself go d success. He for reasons best known to thems lves, could to support the sinking man, received the let. was placed upon a table in the great point of ro longer contain their laughter, and in de-

'Heavens, dear Alie!' whispered the lady -"is it at me the monsters are laughing?" I don't know, my dear-walk on a little;

O, no, let us go slowl and allow them to remained the same-and the mirth of those | victed Governor Marcy of lying, be behind knew no bounds. . Do step on, my dear,' said Mr K-

TOO IS A LITTE

thought or reflection upon the matter, The prize it seems fell upon a cob- not been productive of the least imagina

much said, but our feelings had already h tramplers of the soil ence theirs? We are obliged to send up the whee' our buggy to have it back; four pupils of Academy for a trifling remuneration, each on their shouldeds one of them, carried is through the woods to the wr

Considering that the Government of United States pay 250 dollars each pup their education and board, it is really, a A Mr A-K-, and his bloom- that the facts so badly answer the inteof the people who delivay the expenses, much as a more conscientious con se-A concert took place at 8 o' lock -a f affair indeed. But will y at chieve, if you that, when the concert was ove Vice President still in his morning c me out amidst the numerous audi a laress them. Yes, he did so, to than people present for the patronage the bestowed upon his springs and to ann, that, feeling it his duty to e tertain the was going to make preparations for day and soon after, he set the example to h ants, by working with them con tan his theatric ldress, to clear the room benches, chairs, etc. etc.

You know I am n ta politician, and can therefore c maider me as a mere o er, when I say that the conduct of the President on this occasion appeared t aconsistent with his high station; a s would add, there was too much of a cerper intent to oblige his customers.

I cannot close without alluding to corrence which hopp ned about a the , in reference to the Aca emi isr very good hear ed hidy, who was plings at the time, was so slocked ahappy con aton, teat in openi them, she prevailed on some of the make their escape; but they were over d Frankfort, and persuaded to go buch

The committee appointed by the wil Rutherford county, Tennessee, to ser the polls, report that they discovere EIGHTY-FIVE illegal Van Burer and FIVE filegal whig votes were g that county alone. This accounts way in which the loco foe's gaine 20,000 votes at the last election in that while the whigs continued to retain a In vain they shekened their pace, the as they had two years ago. - Vicks

Mr Tal madge and his friends ha good will it do? Thomas H. Bent been proved a thief twenty years as